

RUMORED MARRIAGE OF BLANCHE WALSH

Broadway Has No Confirmation and Consequently Discredits Story.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Broadway is again guessing today as to the state of the marital affairs of Miss Blanche Walsh, emotional actress, who according to a New Orleans dispatch of yesterday, has become the wife of W. M. Travers, a member of her own company.

At the office of Wagenhals & Kemper, Miss Walsh's managers, it was stated today that no confirmation of the marriage has been received and the report is discredited.

It was in 1903 that Broadway first learned of Miss Walsh's initial plunge into the sea of matrimony, through the announcement that a divorce had been granted her from Alfred Hickman, to whom she had been married secretly eight years before.

Miss Walsh has been the subject of many marriage rumors. One of these had her wedded to Hugo Toland, another had her the wife of a Frisco district attorney, and still a third linked her name with that of Melbourne MacDowell.

THREE DETROIT BANKS FORM ONE COMBINATION

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—Something new in Detroit banking circles has developed in the purchase of the control of the Michigan Savings Bank by members of the board of directors of the First National and Commercial Banks. George Peck, who has been president of the savings bank for thirty years, brought about the affiliation of the three banks. There will be no material change in the policy of the institutions, he says, but the savings bank will broaden.

DRUNKEN ESCAPADE OF OHIO STUDENTS

Memorial Building Window
Smashed in Northern University.

ADA, Ohio, Nov. 27.—Several expulsions from Ohio Northern University are expected as the result of an escapade during the absence of President Smith, which led to the firing of four students for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. A party of students went out into the country, raided a cider mill and stole a quantity of cider. They mixed with it some alcohol, and after drinking it returned to town. Seventeen large windows in the Brown Memorial building were broken and other damage was done. The faculty swore out warrants for eight students and four were fined. Two are at large. When President Smith returns further faculty action is expected.

SCATTERS GEMS ON THE STREETS

Proprietress of Houston,
Tex., Variety Show Throws
Away Diamonds.

GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 27.—Fifty thousand dollars' worth of diamonds have been scattered about Galveston and Houston, and May Alvord is in jail, hopelessly insane. She adopted this peculiar method of getting rid of her wealth, for to distant friends and even to strangers she gave away diamonds, and some of the streets of Houston ran the Standard Variety show. Most of her wealth was invested in the finest and largest rings. Her arrest occurred at the Grand Central Station, in Houston, where, in fear of imaginary enemies, she was attempting to scale a high iron picket fence.

OHIOAN'S FORTUNE SHRINKS IN SIZE

James H. West's Cammack
Estate Wealth Consists of Small Quarterly Checks.

The story told in a dispatch to the effect that James H. West, of Mansfield, Ohio, is on his way to this city to claim a fortune, which he has just learned was willed to him by Mrs. Janet Cammack, occasioned amusement among those cognizant of the facts.

Investigation discloses the fact that, for the last eight or ten years, Mr. West has been sent each quarter of the year a check for $50 or $35 by the Washington Loan and Trust Company, with whom Mrs. Cammack, a relative of West's, left a small sum of money in trust to be given to West in the manner described.

The money is not a large sum, and West has been receiving his quarterly amounts for some time. The trust company has received no information that West is on his way to this city.
